

2021 Guest Group Rates

Zephyr Point welcomes a multitude of diverse conferences and retreats sponsored by churches, families, and other organizations. For these events the booking group is responsible for the conference content and activities of the group. A variety of accommodations, conference space and meal options are available.

General Reservation Information

- Minimum two-night booking required (three nights required on holiday weekends).
- A meal plan is required for Tallac and Tahoe Center bookings.
- Meeting space available upon request. Tallac and Tahoe Center bookings may qualify for a discounted rate.
- All arrangements are to be made on a single group contract with one main contact.
- For youth events, a ratio of 1 adult leader per 8 youth participants is required, and/or a minimum of 1 chaperone per cabin, whichever is greater. Adult leadership must be at least 5 years older than the oldest youth participant. A walk-through with Zephyr Point staff will be arranged to inspect facilities prior to departure.
- A non-refundable/non-transferable 20% lodging deposit is required within three weeks of contract date.
- Final numbers and reservation details are due no later than 10 days prior to arrival.
- Contract balance is due upon arrival with one form of payment. Check is preferred; credit cards are accepted for payments no greater than $5000.
- Groups are recommended to provide their own liability insurance.
- Cancellation Policy: Once reserved with a contract and deposit, lodging cancellations will incur 75%-100% cancellation fees unless space is filled by another group and the facility is sold out.
- Group leader check-in time is 3:00pm. Lodging check-out is 11:00am. Meeting space check-out is 12:00pm.

General Property Information

- Parking is limited and restricted to Zephyr Point overnight guests. Carpooling is encouraged.
- Quiet hours are observed from 10:30pm to 7:30am.
